

Practice Quiz

Nomen: _____

Datum: _____

1. Match the Latin verb form with the English meaning:

a. eris	I will be d
b. erit	we will be c
c. erimus	they will be e
d. ero	she will be b
e. erunt	you will be a

2. Please decline sum, esse, fui in the perfect tense:

Person	Singular	Plural
1st	fui	fui
2nd	fuisti	fuistis
3rd	fuit	fuērunt

3. Please fill in the following Latin forms and English meanings for sum, esse, fui:

Person	Latin form	English Meaning
1st Singular	eram	I was
2nd Singular	eras	you were
3rd Singular	erat	he/she/it was
1st Plural	eramus	we will be were
2nd Plural	eratis	you all were
3rd Plural	erant	they were

4. Translate the following sentence from Latin into English:

Sum miles, ergo in terrâ omne et in tempestate omne pugnabo, et ubique hostibus mortem mittam.

I am a soldier, therefore I will fight in every land and in every season, and I will send death to enemies everywhere.